

Hospital M&A: Valuations Surviving The Pandemic

*Irving Levin Associates Webinar with Matt Caine
March 18, 2021*

Irving Levin Associates LLC will host a webinar on Thursday, March 18, 2021 entitled “Hospital M&A: Valuations Surviving the Pandemic.” Matt Caine, Managing Director at SOLIC Capital Advisors, will be participating on the panel along with other distinguished industry leaders.

Many hospitals and health systems faced financial headwinds going into 2020. The coronavirus pandemic added new challenges, among them increasing cybersecurity threats, the growth of telemedicine and swiftly changing government regulations. But the transactions didn’t stop, for large systems as well as small hospitals. With disruption now a key driver for hospital executives, the webinar will address the outlook for the hospital M&A landscape in 2021 and beyond.
