

SOLIC Capital Advisors Enhances Capabilities with Three Employee Promotions

April 12, 2021

CHICAGO – April 12, 2021 – SOLIC Capital Advisors, a leading financial advisory firm providing restructuring, investment banking and distressed asset support services, announced today three employee promotions. These promotions position SOLIC to best address evolving client needs, including the dynamic post-pandemic business environment.

Mary Missbach Dressler has been promoted to Managing Director. During her 14-year tenure with SOLIC, Ms. Dressler has undertaken increasingly challenging roles and responsibilities and most recently has assumed key leadership roles for several successful engagements. “Mary has made significant contributions and her strength of leadership is evident in her commitment to the firm and to our clients,” said Gregory F. Hagood, Senior Managing Director at SOLIC.

David Garcia has been promoted to Vice President after joining the firm as an analyst four years ago. During this time, he has assumed increasingly visible engagement responsibilities. “In his work at SOLIC, David has demonstrated a breadth of analytical and client management capabilities,” said Neil F. Luria, Senior Managing Director. “He is a great asset to the firm and we are confident he will help lead SOLIC to continued success.”

Kevin Tavakoli has also been promoted to Vice President. During his first year with SOLIC, Kevin has made significant contributions in various client matters. “Kevin has consistently delivered high impact results for our clients during these times of unprecedented disruption,” said Matthew E. Rubin, Senior Managing Director at SOLIC. “His experience and insights will be beneficial to SOLIC as we continue to realize value and deliver results for our clients.”
